Third Edition.

The Littlejohn Libel Suit.—Dewitt C. Littlejohn against George Croesy—damages laid at $20,000—tried for the first time before Judge Bacon, and fully reported for THE TRIBUNE by J. L. Crosby—is published in a neat, compact pamphlet of 56 pages, and for sale at this office. Price 10 cents. Although the great bulk of the evidence collected for the defense was ruled out by Judge B., yet the opening on that side by ISAIAS T. WILLIAMS, esq., gives a good idea of its character and of the grounds of our discontents of the New-York legislature of 1860, its engineers, and their instruments. The rulings of Judge BACON and the comments thereon by JOHN K. PORTER, esq., of Albany, deserve and will command the attention of every man who is interested in the cause of justice, who can afford the defendant in this suit by a bitter political and general adversary, who knows that he is set to be answered, must be gratified with the summing up for the plaintiff by Hon. HENRY A. FOSTER. The cross-examination of the defendant by Hon. A. B. S. STONE and others, comes quite noteworthy aspects. As the trial libel suits are less common than formerly, and as the legislation of 1860 is a subject of enduring interest, we believe many will find this pamphlet worth reading and preserving.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

NEW VOLUME.

On the seventh of September, 1861, THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence; THE DAILY TRIBUNE being some months older and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE somewhat younger. For more than twenty years, this journal has labored in what its conductors have felt to be the cause of Humanity, Justice and Freedom, endeavoring to meliorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortunate, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country.
It has aimed to be right rather than popular, and to expose and command to day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till tomorrow. In pursuing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having nail things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own or others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors.
To develop the minds of the young by the most general, thorough and practical Education, and to encourage and stimulate Productive Industry, through free grants of Public Lands to actual settlers and cultivators, as also through the protection of immature or peculiarly exposed branches from too powerful foreign competition, are among the aims to which this journal has adhered through good and evil report, and which it steadfastly commits itself to American patriotism and philanthropy.

As to the Civil War now devastating our country, we hold it to have originated in a Rebellion more wanton, wicked, in-cruel, than was ever before known—a Rebellion in the interest of the few against the many—a Rebellion designed to raise higher the walls of caste and tighten the chains of oppression.
Having done all we could without a surrender of vital principle to avert this horror, we hold it our clear duty, that of every other citizen, to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen rulers, and to second with all our energies their efforts to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the Law. And though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation, desecration, terrorism, and apostasy, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic far stronger, and that the unanimous efforts of loyal hearts and hands will suffice to insure its overthrow. But on all other subjects affecting the object, scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with authority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in so grave an emergency.

In a crisis like the present, our columns must be largely engrossed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with elucidations of its more striking incidents. We shall not, however, remit attention to Literature, to Foreign Affairs, and to Agricultural Progress, to Crop Markets, &c. &c. which have already a full share of newspaper space. We shall, however, not merely glean a vivid and faithful history of the times, but we trust that the news of the contents of our journal is peculiarly well known to the public. And though the "World" will still hope to "make each day a critic on the last," in this hope we solicit a continuance of the journal's present popularity.

It is believed that this fact will present a strong inducement to all men who are desirous of entering at once into our service.

Inquiries in regard to the condition of the regiment may be addressed to Col. BERNARD, at Washington.

W. B. EAGER, Jr., Marshall.

To Unassigned Military Companies.—Two full companies to be now received in the 13th Regiment N. Y. Volunteers, commanded by me.

This regiment has been reduced in numbers by its discharge of men who were mustered into the service for only their initial term, and whose services are no longer required.

And is attached to Gen. Wadsworth's Brigade, stationed at Utica Hill, N.Y., in the advance of the Army of the Potowmack.

It is believed that this fact will present a strong inducement
our service.

Officers of Volunteers, Attention!—MANAGED 22 men, to fill up a company, have now $100 to the standard, for which the position of 2d Lieutenant will be given. Pay, rations, and clothing furnished at once. Address H. B. Z., Tribune Office, immediately.
